EXTRA CHROMATON

The phrase "Extrachromat" was removed from the expansion of the phrase "Lobeskie Materialy" in the previous page.
The text on the image is written in the Wolof language, a language spoken in Senegal. The text appears to be a page from a book or document, possibly containing a narrative or exposition. Due to the complexity and structure of the language, a precise translation into English is not immediately possible without linguistic expertise. However, it seems to discuss a topic that might involve historical, cultural, or social commentary.

For a more accurate representation, a native speaker or a professional translator would be required to interpret the content accurately. This would help in understanding the context and the specific ideas or arguments presented in the document.
